DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 17-23 and 27, drawn to a method, classified in class 228, subclass 4.5.
 - II. Claims 24-26, drawn to a bonding tool, classified in class 228, subclass 44.7.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and II are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the method can be used to coat an electrode.

3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group I is not required for Group II, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. During a telephone conversation with Mr. Jacques Eckowicz on October 21, 2004 a provisional election was made without traverse to prosecute the invention of group I, claims 17-23 and 27. Affirmation of this election must be made by applicant in replying to this Office action. Claims 24-26 are withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

Art Unit: 1725

5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Information Disclosure Statement

6. The information disclosure statement filed 2/25/04 fails to comply with 37 CFR 1.98(a)(2), which requires a legible copy of each cited foreign patent document; each non-patent literature publication or that portion which caused it to be listed; and all other information or that portion which caused it to be listed. It has been placed in the application file, but the information referred to therein has not been considered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

7. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

8. Claims 17-19 and 27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Macover (US 2004/0129755).

Art Unit: 1725

As to claims 17 and 27, Macover discloses a method of manufacturing a capillary bonding tool comprising the steps of forming a cylindrical body, forming a taper at a first end of the body, forming an orifice, and coating the orifice and the exterior with a polymer (paragraph 48 and 49).

As to claims 18 and 19, the coating is about 2 microns and at least 0.1 microns (paragraph 48).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

9. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

10. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

11. Claims 20-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Macover (US '755).

Art Unit: 1725

Macover discloses the claimed invention above, but fails to teach coating steps comprising forming a precursor monomer at a first temperature and pressure, and the steps of forming a capillary by injection molding, dye pressing, grinding, or electrodischarge machining.

However, Macover discloses the coated polymer to be para-xylylene, same as applicant's disclosed invention. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time applicant's invention was made to coat the polymer by achieving a first temperature and pressure followed by second temperature and pressure, since it is within the person skilled in the art to find a reasonable parameter to apply the coating onto a non-polymeric surface with good adhesivity.

In addition, it is conventional and obvious to manufacture the capillary bonding tip by either machining or injection molding.
